vs.	)	ORDER
	)
AMANDA J. LORINCE,	)
	)
Defendant.	)

This matter was heard on October 16, 2012, upon the request of the United States Pretrial and Probation Office for a finding that defendant had violated the conditions of her supervised release. The defendant was present and represented by Attorney Edward Bryan. The original violation report was referred to Magistrate Judge Kenneth S. McHargh who issued a Report and Recommendation on September 27, 2012. No objections were filed by either plaintiff or defendant and the Court adopted the Report and Recommendation and found that the following terms of supervision had been violated:

- 1) unauthorized drug use;
- 2) failure to participate in drug and mental health counseling;
- 3) change of address without notification;
- 4) failure to follow instructions of the probation officer.

The Court found the most serious violation to be a Grade C, defendant's Criminal History to be a Category 1 and sentenced defendant to the Bureau of Prisons for a term of 5 months with credit for time served. Upon release from incarceration defendant's period of supervised release shall terminate. Finally, the Court recommended, upon request of defense counsel, that the Bureau of Prisons designate a facility as close as possible in the Northern District of Ohio - perhaps the Bedford Heights jail - at which defendant would serve her term of imprisonment.

The defendant is remanded to the custody of the U.S. Marshal, Cleveland, Ohio.

Dated: October 16, 2012
